

Monkeys Free Press

JANUARY 12, 2021 - BRIAN HARROD PUBLISHER AND EDITOR

Anthony Scarpino, Former Westchester County DA, and Paul Noto, Former First Deputy DA are going into private practice.

Former Westchester County District Attorney Anthony Scarpino Lands A New Job In Rye

By BRIAN HARROD

Dorf & Nelson LLP, a private practice law firm headquartered in Rye, N.Y., is pleased to announce that former Westchester County District Attorney Anthony A. Scarpino, Jr. and former First Deputy District Attorney Paul J. Noto have joined the firm as partners.

Anthony Scarpino and Noto join as partners in the Litigation Department at the firm's Rye office.

As Westchester County DA, Scarpino enacted sweeping criminal justice reform, including putting in place the Discovery statute, ending cash-bail and pre-trial detention for non-qualifying cases, and "Raising the Age" for teen offenders.

Previously, he worked in private practice following a 30-year career as a judge in and around Westchester County, including on the New York State Supreme Court for the Ninth Judicial District.

Scarpino was elected Westchester County Surrogate in 2000, and re-elected in 2010.

He has been widely recognized for his work.

Earlier in his career, Scarpino was a Special Agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Paul As Deputy District Attorney and Special Counsel, Noto advised the DA on significant matters related to cases and policy initiatives.

Prior to his role in the DA's office, Noto was in private practice.

With more than 35 years of professional experience as an attorney, he has set himself apart as an expert in the areas of land use, zoning and planning.

Noto was general counsel for Westchester Joint Water Works and town attorney for Rye.

He was mayor of the Village of Mamaroneck, N.Y., from 1985 to 1993 and served on the Westchester County Board of Legislators.

Noto has held various board positions for organizations such as My Sister's Place, Westchester Children's Association and Westchester Chapter League of Conservation Voters.

Founded in 1992, Dorf & Nelson LLP is a private practice law firm headquartered at the International Corporate Center in Rye, N.Y., with offices in Manhattan, Garden City, N.Y., and Los Angeles, Calif.

Dorf & Nelson serves a wide range of corporations, entrepreneurs, growing businesses, and successful companies as both legal counsel and trusted advisors with practice areas comprising litigation, corporate law, commercial real estate, intellectual property, life sciences, medical malpractice defense, not-for-profit, and property finance.